Agents of Grace: The People in David's Life and in Yours

Author: Robert J. Koester

This book examines how the Lord used people in David's life to guide and mold him into a true servant of God and shows how the Lord also does this in our own lives today. David, one of the most revered people in the Old Testament, certainly had his share of human flaws. However, God used his agents - the people around David - to influence David and lead him back to the righteous path. God does the same for us in our present-day world; whether it's a family member, friend, coworker, or a stranger on the street, people all around us can be God's agents of grace.

Forgive Us Our Sins: Homosexuality in the Light of God's Truth

Author: Richard D. Starr and Scott I. Barefoot

In this book, the authors tackle the tough issue of homosexuality in a firm but loving way through the clear context of Scripture and also retell Scott's exodus from the gay lifestyle back to Christ. They avoid judgment and stereotypes by delicately balancing biblical law and gospel to provide encouragement to all believers who struggle with any temptation, not just homosexuality. The book also provides hope and support for those who, just as Scott did, seek to turn away from a life of homosexuality. Published 2014. 99 pages.
