

Responsive Opening Dialogues for Worship

WELS Arizona-California District Worship Committee

November 2015

The following responsive dialogues were developed to be used at the start of worship on special occasions. After the opening hymn and invocation or greeting, an appropriate dialogue from below replaces the Confession of Sins, Absolution, and Kyrie. A festive setting of an appropriate canticle may follow, concluding with the Prayer of the Day and leading into the Word portion of the service. The Scripture translation used in these dialogues is the NIV 1984, with occasional modification.

DIALOGUE FOR NEW YEAR'S EVE

from Ecclesiastes 3 and Psalm 90

M: There is a time for everything,
and a season for every activity under heaven:

a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain,
a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,
a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,
a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

C: Lord, you have been our dwelling place
throughout all generations.
Before the mountains were born
or you brought forth the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

M: A thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by,
or like a watch in the night.

C: The length of our days is seventy years—
or eighty, if we have the strength;
yet their span is but trouble and sorrow,
for they quickly pass, and we fly away.

M: Teach us to number our days aright,
that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

C: May the favor of the Lord our God rest upon us;
establish the work of our hands for us—
yes, establish the work of our hands.

- C: My soul faints with longing for your salvation, but I have put my hope in your word.
- M: The Scripture declares that the whole world is a prisoner of sin, so that what was promised, being given through faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who believe.

- M: When the time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under law, to redeem those under law, that we might receive the full rights of sons. - C: I have sought your face with all my heart; be gracious to me according to your promise.
- M: It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.

For his anger lasts only a moment, but his favor lasts a lifetime. Psalm 30:4-5
- C: I am a sinner and I am a saint. This is what the Lord says. I am a sinner in God’s sight, not because God made me a sinner, but because I inherited the sin of my parents and because I sin every day. At the same time I am also holy in God’s sight, not because of what I have done, but because God has declared me righteous for the sake of the perfect life and atoning death of his Son. This righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. I am a saint, God’s own child, and an heir of heaven.

M: Christians should be exhorted to be diligent in following Christ, their head, through penalties, death, and hell, and thus be confident of entering into heaven through many tribulations rather than through the false security of peace.

And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while,
will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast.
To him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

and on earth peace to men on whom his favor rests. Luke 2:14
- M: He has performed mighty deeds with his arm;

but has lifted up the humble.
He has filled the hungry with good things which he prepared in the sight of all people,

a light for revelation to the Gentiles

he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross! Philippians 2:6-8
- C: In him was life, and that life was the light of men. John 1:4

M: Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God!
How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out!

For from him and through him and to him are all things.
To him be the glory forever!

informed by your truth,
accomplished to your glory.

C: The works of the Lord are great and glorious. His love endures forever!

M: O Father Most Gracious, bring us together in the name of Jesus, that in him we might be a spiritual temple, that founded on him we might be built together as living stones, that in him we might offer to you the spiritual service of lives lived in your love,

of proclaiming your words and work,
of sharing your gifts to us.

C: The works of the Lord are great and glorious. Tell of all his wonderful deeds!

M: O Father eternal, you have sent out an invitation, you have prepared a great feast that all might enter the courts of your presence and the mansions of your paradise. Grant to us your blessing and peace,

DIALOGUE FOR A CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

Excerpts from the Explanation of the Third Article of the Apostles' Creed from Martin Luther's Large Catechism and corresponding verses from the New Testament

This dialogue was originally prepared for Pentecost Day.

- M: We could never know anything about Christ, believe in him, or have him for our Lord, unless it were offered to us and granted to our hearts by the Holy Spirit through the preaching of the gospel.
- C: No one who is speaking by the Spirit of God says, “Jesus be cursed,” and no one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit. 1 Corinthians 12:3
- M: The Spirit has his own congregation in the world, which is the mother that conceives and bears every Christian through God's Word. Through the Word he reveals and preaches, he illumines and enkindles hearts, so that they understand, accept, cling to, and persevere in the Word.
- C: The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory. Romans 8:16-17
- M: I believe that there is upon earth a little holy group and congregation of pure saints, under one head, Christ. This group is called together by the Holy Spirit in one faith, one mind and understanding, with many different gifts. I am also a part and member of this same group, a sharer and joint owner of all the goods it possesses.
- C: There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to one hope when you were called—one Lord, one faith, one baptism one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. Ephesians 4:4-6
- M: In this Christian Church we have forgiveness of sin, which is wrought through the holy sacraments and absolution and through all kinds of comforting promises from the entire gospel. God's grace is secured through Christ, and sanctification is wrought by the Holy Spirit through God's Word in the unity of the Christian Church.
- C: Jesus said to his disciples, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.” John 20:23
- M: We have already received creation. Redemption is also finished. But the Holy Spirit carries on his work without ceasing to the Last Day. For that purpose he has appointed a congregation upon earth by which he speaks and does everything. For he has not yet brought together all his Christian Church or granted all forgiveness. Therefore, we believe in him who daily brings us into the fellowship of this Christian Church through the Word.
- C: Jesus said, “I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd.” John 10:16
- M: We could never grasp the knowledge of the Father's grace and favor except through the Lord Christ. Jesus is a mirror of the fatherly heart, outside of whom we see nothing but an angry and terrible Judge. But we also could not know anything about Christ unless it had been revealed by the Holy Spirit.
- C: We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us. 1 Corinthians 2:12

DIALOGUE FOR A MISSION FESTIVAL

This dialogue was originally prepared for the Commemoration of St. Luke, Evangelist (appointed for October 18).

- M: Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel,
because he has come and has redeemed his people.
He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David. Luke 1:68-69
- C: Arise, shine, for your light has come,
and the glory of the Lord rises upon you.
See, darkness covers the earth
and thick darkness is over the peoples,
but the Lord rises upon you and his glory appears over you. Isaiah 60:1-2
- M: His mercy extends to those who fear him,
from generation to generation.
He has performed mighty deeds with his arm;
he has scattered those who are proud in their inmost thoughts. Luke 1:50-51
- C: Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down,
that the mountains would tremble before you!
As when fire sets twigs ablaze
and causes water to boil,
come down to make your name known to your enemies and cause the nations to quake before you! Isaiah 64:1-2
- M: I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God
over one sinner who repents. Luke 15:10
- C: Our offenses are many in your sight,
and our sins testify against us.
Our offenses are ever with us,
and we acknowledge our iniquities. Isaiah 59:12
- M: The Son of Man will be handed over to the Gentiles.
They will mock him, insult him, spit on him, flog him and kill him.
On the third day he will rise again. Luke 18:32-33
- C: He was pierced for our transgressions,
he was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that brought us peace was upon him,
and by his wounds we are healed. Isaiah 53:5
- M: My eyes have seen your salvation,
which you have prepared in the sight of all people,
a light for revelation to the Gentiles
and for glory to your people Israel. Luke 2:30-32

- C: I will praise you, O Lord.
Although you were angry with me,
your anger has turned away
and you have comforted me.
Surely God is my salvation;
I will trust and not be afraid.
The Lord, the Lord, is my strength and my song;
he has become my salvation. Isaiah 12:1-2
- M: Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to men on whom his favor rests. Luke 2:14
- C: Sing to the Lord, for he has done glorious things;
let this be known to all the world.
Shout aloud and sing for joy, people of Zion,
for great is the Holy One of Israel among you. Isaiah 12:5-6
- M: The Christ will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and repentance and forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. Luke 24:46-47
- C: How beautiful on the mountains
are the feet of those who bring good news,
who proclaim peace,
who bring good tidings,
who proclaim salvation,
who say to Zion, “Your God reigns!”
Burst into songs of joy together,
you ruins of Jerusalem,
for the Lord has comforted his people,
he has redeemed Jerusalem. Isaiah 52:7,9
